

Greater Cincinnati Leadership & Ethics Seminar

WHAT TO KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Theme:

- We plan to explore how to become a strong ethical leader in our ever-changing world.
- We will do this with several different types of activities including a keynote speaker, small group discussions and exercises to teach the ethical decision-making process.

What to Expect:

- Our goal is to teach you the ethical decision-making process the way we were taught at the US Military Academy. The West Point Society of Greater Cincinnati hosts this event, with many graduates and friends of the Academy on hand to share and coach.

Dress Code:

- The seminar is teaching leadership. We challenge all future leaders to dress appropriately in business/business casual attire.
- What this means: Nice pants, slacks, dresses/skirts are appropriate. Dress shirts, polo shirts, or professional looking tops. Suit jackets optional.
- PLEASE: NO ripped jeans, sweatpants, or leggings; no shirts with inappropriate writing.

What to bring:

- Signed release form

What happens upon arrival

- Registration is by school, not individual.
- We ask that the faculty member register for all students; confirm attendees and turn in liability waivers.
- At registration, each school will receive a packet with nametags and information for each participant
- Light snacks served
- Use this time to get your bearings and locate your small group classroom
- Plan to be seated in large gathering space (sanctuary) prior to 8:30 AM

What happens if someone is sick, or we need to swap attendees

- If possible, notify us ahead of time so we can prepare nametags update small group assignments
- If happens on day of, there will be a special check-in area to ensure the replacement has a nametag and is assigned to a small group.
- Please make sure the replacement brings a signed release form

What happens in the event of inclement weather?

- February weather in the tri-state area does not always cooperate. In the past 11 years, we have had two delayed starts, but no cancellations.
- In the event of inclement weather, we will post any schedule updates or cancellation plans on our website by 6PM Thursday evening prior to the event.
- Please follow your school district guidance on weather when deciding on attending or not.

Please note:

- This is NOT intended as a recruiting event for West Point. We welcome any questions about the Academy or the admissions process, but in no way is this event just for those interested in the military or any of the service academies.
